

Council Motion
D5 EFH 5-year Review Update
October 2014

The Council should go on record with the agency as recommending that the timeline for the five year review be extended in order to accommodate incorporating the new data sources, and the necessary SSC reviews into the fishing effects model and the revised species distribution models.